

Early Literacy Trainer - Community Care

Sydney Metropolitan Region

Casual Role

St John Ambulance Australia (NSW) is a self-funded not for profit organisation. As part of our service to the community, The Program to Aid Literacy is a volunteer program designed to assist primary school students experiencing problems with reading and writing.

St John (NSW) is seeking a motivated, enthusiastic and experienced individual to fill a vacancy for Community Care Casual Trainer in the South Western and Sydney Metropolitan regions.

The successful applicant will be responsible for training participants in the Program to Aid Literacy Course and other Community Care courses as negotiated and provide ongoing support and training for volunteers taking part in the Program to Aid Literacy.

It is essential that you will have the following attributes:

- Tertiary Qualifications in education / primary education
- Demonstrated training and experience in adult education and face to face delivery
- Knowledge of the NSW English K-6 Syllabus
- Demonstrated Oral, written and interpersonal skills
- Demonstrated understanding of literacy skills
- Excellent organisational skills
- Not be a 'Prohibited Person' according to NSW Child Protection legislation
- Available to travel within the Sydney Metropolitan area to conduct training as negotiated.

In return, we offer attractive salary packaging benefits, and a fun and flexible working environment.

Applications addressing the above essential criteria, should be marked private and confidential and emailed to Marie_hopkins@stjohnnsw.com.au

Applications close Friday 18th June 2010

St John is an Equal Employment Opportunity Employer

