St John thanks Albury Commercial Club

St John Ambulance Australia (NSW) would like to acknowledge and thank Albury Commercial Club for their enormous effort in raising and donating $15,000 to St John.

The money raised will assist in the purchase of an Ambulance Vehicle which will be used at major sporting events, cultural and music festivals, community, Australia Day and ANZAC day events.

The Albury volunteers have previously been using their own vehicle to attend local events, the new vehicle further enhance the local operational capabilities.

“We would like to thank the Commercial Club, It’s directors and management for their continued support “said Chris Chant, Chairman Southern Region, St John Ambulance (NSW).

“It will provide our volunteers with an effective transport system, ensuring casualties are treated in a quick and effective manner. “

“St John is extremely grateful for the support of the Commercial Club as donations such as their’s enables us to maintain the highest of first aid services.” Said Mr Chant.

Mr Chant will present a plaque of appreciation to Jeffrey Duck, General Manager, Commercial Club, on Tuesday 4 July at the St John Annual Black Tie Dinner. The Mayor of Albury, Dr Arthur Frauenfelder and Greg Alpin MP will also attend the dinner.
